What's Happening at your Library

Book Fair and Mini Market: thank you all who supported this major fund raiser. Most successful finanically but the good will generated throughout the morning was equally important.

Thank you Lions and Probus who provided man power and support throughout the morning.

Bingo: 3rd May and also 31st May. Do attend and support those who are home alone who join us on these happy fun filled mornings 9:30am to 11:30am.

Intergenerational Playgroup: starting in May. See poster that end of this newsletter.

Numerous new books included recently. Many of which have been donated—thank you. These new books widen the collection's scope making our community library one which attracted borrowers from far afield.

Dervla McTiernan

Dervla McTiernan was born in County Cork, growing up initially in Carrigaline and Douglas before her father's work in the bank took her to Dublin, aged six, and then Limerick. She is one of a family of seven. McTiernan studied corporate law in University College Galway and went on to become a solicitor, training in Dublin. She returned to County Galway, to Oranmore, to build her own legal practice, working in it for about twelve years. By then she was married to her husband Kenny, an engineer and they had a daughter, with a son on the way. Ireland hit a recession and the couple decided to move to Australia. She is now an Australian citizen.

Award winning, number one bestseller Dervla McTiernan has established herself as one of the biggest names in crime fiction. Her books have garnered critical acclaim around the world and sold over 400,000 copies in Australia and New Zealand alone.

2024 Book Fair and Mini Market

Numerous families enjoyed the wide range of new and second hand books.

Volunteers, from the left Annette Maidens, Susan Diplock and Lucille Marriott worked all morning.

Volunteers, Lucie Burge and Roz Wilson worked on the Gently Loved Treasure's stall

Volunteers Andrea Walker and Josie Andrews welcomed everyone and collected the money.

Volunteers, Wendy Stewart and Kathy Lambe enjoyed assisting on the Cake Stall.

Probus in action: Heather Fox and Coral Usher

Lions members not only offered delicious barbecue meals but also helped set up and pull down the Fair.

Where would our community be without this community minded group of volunteers.
